FORD UNLEASHES MUSTANG T-SHIRTS — TORONTO

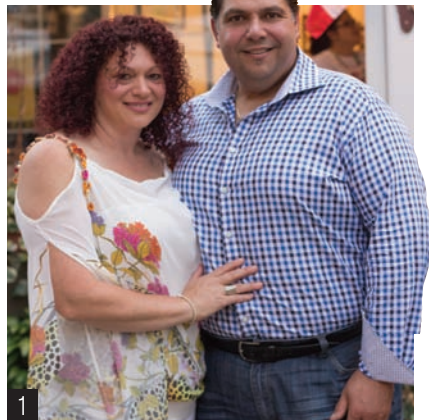

Since 1964, the Ford Mustang has always, and unabashedly, been a staple of pop culture. This year the sleek and sporty car turns 50 and five global fashion visionaries — American fashion icon Anna Sui, Rogan Gregory and Scott Mackinlay-Hahn of Rogan, luxury handbag designer Paula Cademartori, Tomaso Anfossi and Francesco Ferrari of CO|TE and jewelry designer Pamela Love — joined Ford to celebrate with Mustang Unleashed, a limited-edition line of graphic T-shirts inspired by the car. Each designer created three shirts, which VIPs got a sneak peek of during a preview at Toronto's Hazelton Hotel on August 27, 2014. Guests were treated to various sweets and a manicure using OPI's six-shade Ford Mustang collection, such as the aptly named Race Red. Mustang Unleashed, produced by Loomstate, is now available exclusively on Gilt.

DODGE4DIABETES WITH THE KLEINBURG LEOS — VAUGHAN

On August 16, 2014, the Kleinburg Leo Club held its premier large-scale event — a four-hour dodgeball tournament at Trio Sportsplex — in support of the Canadian Diabetes Association. Five teams of 10 participated to bring awareness to diabetes and the importance of a healthy lifestyle for both diabetics and non-diabetics. In between games, players donned cowboy hats, sunglasses, Hawaiian garlands and other wacky accessories at the photo booth table set up by the club. Some even sported hairbands with cat ears as their uniform, but it was the Mighty Dodgers in Nike headbands, who were the best dressed and winning team. At night, about 30 people headed to Kleinburg's much-loved bakery Dolcini by Joseph for awards and a silent auction filled with prizes ranging from Amado Salon hair products to Telus phone holders. Guests enjoyed a special diabetic dessert from Dolcini by Joseph and hors d'oeuvres from The Doctor's House. The event raised close to $3,000.
